

Creative Strand: Stimulus 15

Nikki Rosato, Untitled (Mouth to Mouth)

Image description

Two bodies stand facing each other on opposite sides of the artwork. Connected by one meandering red route extending from the mouth. Inside each, parts of a map can be seen.

On the Artist

Rosato manipulates maps by removing land masses in her artwork, leaving just road and rivers. Through this Rosato reveals the complexities of human relationship, our attachment with place whilst also maintaining lines that could be interpreted as the pathways that exist within the human body.

Points to unpack

- Mapping and tracing (in space and on the body)
- Journeys
- Connection
- Circulatory system
- Repurposing material
